

The image features a stylized logo for 'Lean 42'. On the left, there are two large, red, curved lines that resemble parentheses, one opening to the right and one closing to the left. To the right of these parentheses, the word 'Lean' is written in a black, sans-serif font. Following 'Lean', the number '42' is written in a red, sans-serif font, matching the color of the parentheses. The entire logo is set against a background of light gray, wavy, horizontal lines.
